

(b) Required adjustment. If the PHA determines that an adjustment is necessary under paragraph (a) of this section, it must establish a new schedule of utility allowances, taking into account the size and type of dwelling units and other applicable factors.

(c) Adjustments in housing assistance payments. The PHA must determine if adjustments to utility allowances affect the amount of housing assistance paid on behalf of the family by recalculating the minimum rent under § 887.353(a)(2).

(Information collection requirements contained in this section have been approved by the Office of Management and Budget under control number 2502–0161)

§ 887.363 Housing assistance payments equal to zero.

(a) Under the formula in § 887.353 for calculating the housing assistance payment on behalf of a family, no housing assistance payment is made whenever either 30 percent of the family's monthly adjusted income equals or exceeds the payment standard or 10 percent of the family's monthly income equals or exceeds the rent to owner plus any applicable utility allowance. Cessation of housing assistance payments does not affect the family's other rights under the lease, nor does it prevent the resumption of payments as the result of later changes in family income, family size or composition, or other relevant circumstances during the term of the housing voucher contract.

(b) When one year has elapsed since the date of the last housing assistance payment made under the housing voucher contract, the contract terminates automatically.

Subpart I [Reserved]

Subpart J—Special Housing Types

§ 887.451 Purpose of this subpart.

(a) This subpart contains the additional program requirements for the following specialized types of housing: Cooperative or mutual housing; independent group residences; manufactured homes; single room occupancy; and congregate housing. (The requirements that are unique to shared housing, another special housing type, are set out in subpart K of this part.)

(b) Except as modified by this subpart J, all of the requirements in the other subparts of this part apply to these special housing types.

§ 887.453 Cooperative or mutual housing: Definition.

“Cooperative or mutual housing” means a type of housing authorized by State law that is owned by a corporation where ownership of a share in the corporation entitles the owner to exclusive occupancy of a unit, and participation in the operation of the project.

§ 887.455 Cooperative or mutual housing: Limitation on the use of housing voucher authority.

A PHA may use its housing voucher authority to provide assistance with respect to cooperative or mutual housing, if the following circumstances exist:

(a) The cooperative or mutual housing occupancy agreement requires that the housing units be owned-occupied, unless authorization is obtained from the board to sublet a unit;

(b) The cooperative or mutual housing occupancy agreement provides that any sale of the occupant's interest in the unit (such as a sale of a certificate in the corporation) is controlled by a formula set out in the corporation's by-laws or occupancy agreement. The formula must be adopted by the corporation's board of directors and must be designed to ensure continued affordability of the cooperative or mutual housing to low-income families (as defined by HUD in part 813 of this chapter) for a period that extends at least fifteen years; and

(c) The PHA determines that providing assistance under this part will help in maintaining the affordability of this housing to low-income families.

§ 887.461 Independent group residences (IGR): Definitions.
